

Haney Lashes Out At Newsman's Series Question

NEW YORK (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves arrived here Monday for the World Series and Manager Fred Haney immediately got into a hassle with a reporter.

As Haney stepped from the chartered airliner, a newsman asked him if he thought the Braves would "choke up" in the series.

"That's silly," Haney replied angrily. "What the hell's the matter with you? What kind of a question is that?"

"If you try to get into our club house, I'll kick you out."

The reporter persisted that he thought it was a legitimate question.

"You've got a lot of guts to make a crack like that," Haney shot back heatedly.

Asked how he felt about the odds favoring the New York Yankees in the classic which gets underway Wednesday, Haney answered:

"I hope they are favored because when we win we'll get more credit."

NEW YORK (AP)—The old professor was carrying a load of books, and his Monday morning class of football coaches was quite surprised. They'd seen him loaded before, but never with books, although he knew a lot of bookmakers.

Old professor—good morning, gentlemen. Don't be alarmed. I'm just carrying these for ballast. I was tackled from behind by a Jerseyville player and it looks as though one of his teammates is helping the Panther defender to make the unassisted bring-down. Actually, the would-be tackler got Schillinger before the block could be made.

Don Schillinger, JHS freshman-sophomore fullback (lower right), chewed up some large yardage on this play last night in Jacksonville's victory over Jerseyville, 25-14. But he was tackled from behind by a Jerseyville player and it looks as though one of his teammates is helping the Panther defender to make the unassisted bring-down. Actually, the would-be tackler got Schillinger before the block could be made.

Sports Briefs

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Four regulars were on the football injury list at Notre Dame Monday. They were center Dick Sullivan, halfback Aubrey Lewis, end Dick Royer and fullback Nick Pietrosante. The first three have ankle injuries and Pietrosante has a bruised shoulder.

All but Sullivan, a co-captain, is expected to play in the Irish home opener with Indiana Saturday.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Coach Ray Elliot Monday replaced three of his Illinois first stringers as a sign of his displeasure with the 16-6 opening loss at UCLA.

Captain Dale Smith, halfback, was set down to the second string with his place taken by sophomore Doug Wallace of Elgin, Ill.

Also replaced were center Bob Henderson, by Gene Cherney, and fullback Ray Nitschke, by Jack Delveaux.

The No. 1 quarterback spot is being shared at present by Tom Haller, Bob Hickey and Bill O'Fenbecker.

Illinois came out of the UCLA game with only minor injuries.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Ara Parseghian, Northwestern football coach, Monday took a dig at officiating in his team's 26-6 loss to Stanford on the West Coast Saturday.

"Penalties against us were legitimate but often thin border line calls," he told the Evanston Quarterback Club. "After studying the film of the game, we saw many instances where Stanford were guilty of violations which were not called."

Old professor—You got well fast, no doubt. Hiding?

Ben Martin, Virginia (Duke 40, Virginia 0)—Nothing, professor. I was just showing how I often couldn't tell who was carrying the ball for Duke.

Bill Murray, Duke—Again we proved we have a fine first team. We made no offensive mistakes.

Jim Owens, Washington (Minnesota 46, Washington 7)—Team? Which team? Minnesota was good through three teams. We were poor, especially on defense, whether we played our first or second unit.

Murray Warmath, Minnesota—We had too much manpower for them, got a couple of breaks early, and kept putting on the pressure. But this exceeded my fondest dreams. I nearly worried myself sick the night before the game.

The session had lapsed into the evening hours when the third amendment was voted down, this 9-5. It would have cut O'Malley out of profits from oil which might be produced in the ravine area in the future.

Chances for approving the ordinance Monday vanished early in the long, hectic session when councilman John C. Holland—leader of the opposition to the contract—said he would vote against it.

Holland's vote not to allow a unanimous tally means that the ordinance must be tabled for a week—at which time it would come up for action again, with 10 votes needed to pass it.

Under terms of the contract worked out with O'Malley, he would get ownership of about 300 acres in Chavez Ravine in exchange for building a stadium, bringing the Brooklyn franchise here, and deeding Wrigley Field to the city of Los Angeles. The Dodgers got Wrigley Field when they purchased the Los Angeles franchise in the Pacific Coast League.

Bitter opposition to the plan came Monday from property owners in the ravine.

The acreage there was obtained in part when the city housing authority condemned it for a public housing project. When the project did not materialize, the land was turned over to the city.

Other land in the area is being condemned by the city and added to the housing project planned, presumably for transfer to the Dodgers.

A long line of citizens, many ousted Chavez Ravine home owners, appeared in the bright glare of television lights to oppose the plan.

It was a quip, with regard to plan, "It didn't take me long to accept. It was only a question of whether I can stand the rarefied atmosphere in Cleveland. I was 12 years in the dungeon, you know."

"An eight-million-dollar give-away" is the way one woman described it.

Supporting the plan for shifting the Bums to Los Angeles were business men and baseball fans.

One group—a self-styled citizen's committee—caused a tumult in the council chambers by presenting a 125-foot-long petition bearing 5,000 signatures backing the proposal.

The Jacksonville High Freshman-Sophomore eleven overcame an early Jerseyville lead in the second quarter to hand the visiting Panther underclassmen a 25-14 setback at the JHS athletic field Monday night.

The victory was the second of the season for coaches Holmes and Gierke's charges in three starts. Two blocked punts set up Jerseyville's two tallies with the first coming in the initial period. The Panthers marched downfield to score from JHS' one yard stripe and added the extra point for an early 7-0 margin with five minutes and 31 seconds remaining.

Following the kickoff and a JHS punt, the Panthers tumbled to get the Crimson machine to roll. A 57 yard run by halfback Wayne Stewart around his own left end gave Jacksonville its first tally and that's the way the score stood at the end of the first quarter when the junior Jacks missed their extra point attempt, 7-6.

The Crimson made a sustained drive to Jerseyville's 15 yard marker in the closing minutes of the second period but Jerseyville stymied the attack by taking advantage of JHS penalties.

But the Jacks held on the ensuing downs and forced the Panthers to punt. With one minute remaining to go before halftime, a pass from quarterback Dick Parker to fullback Don Schillinger covered 40 yards that carried to Jerseyville's 5. A pitchout to Schillinger netted a JHS TD and the game was on top to stay.

Jacksonville was on top to stay.

HONOR LITTLE LEAGUERS

The first Murrayville Little League team sponsored by American Legion Post 311 under supervision of Post Commander Don E. Lakin and coaches Ross Spencer, William Joseph and Dale Walker, ended the season by taking the players on a trip to St. Louis to see the Cardinals play.

Downstate Prep Notes

The third week of football brought three conference games in the Valley loop with four teams tied for the top spot including White Hall, Roodhouse, Virginia and Winchester. Carrollton, Greenfield, Hardin and Pleasant Hill were the losers in the opening round of conference action. White Hall beat Greenfield 20-13 and Roodhouse nosed out Carrollton 18-14 in a thriller while Virginia upended Hardin 34-7. Winchester lost a non-conference game at Pittsfield 13-6 with all the scoring in the last quarter. Pleasant Hill's Wolves enjoyed an open date and will play host to the fast improving White Hall Maroons of Coach Bill McCarthy Friday night.

And, in turn, the city was given a promise by manager Fred Haney for a game Friday night for the first time as these two teams did not meet last year. Winchester travels to Greenfield and Hardin plays at Roodhouse in other conference action. Last season Pleasant Hill beat White Hall 7-6 while Roodhouse beat Hardin 21-7 last year and Greenfield lost to Winchester 35-14 at Winchester.

Winchester leads with 45 points for the first conference game against the Pleasant Hill Wolves while Virginia shows the best defense with only seven points scored against them by Hardin.

Jacksonville high school entertains Beardstown high Friday night in a Central conference game and the Crimson have scored 146 points in three games to their opponents none. The game is the second in the conference for the Jacks and they are the defending champs. The test for the Jacksonville eleven will be at Jerseyville October 11 with Coach Joe Jurkunian's strong Panthers, unbeaten this season.

Ticker tape and confetti poured down from the tall office buildings and department stores that line the avenue.

Fifty policemen were on duty along the line of march. They tried—not too hard—to keep the crowd on the sidewalks. Women, with tots in their arms, or tugging helpless youngsters by the hand darted out into the street for autographs or just to shake hands with the players.

Coroner's deputies said two bodies had been taken from the wreckage and they were waiting to see if there were more.

Braves Leave For New York To Meet Yanks Wednesday

By CHUCK CAPALDO

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Our Braves as they are affectionately known hereabouts, flew to New York Monday to take on the vaunted Yankees in the World Series with the cheers, admonitions and advice of nearly 150,000 Milwaukeeans echoing in their ears.

The staid, old city that hasn't been quite the same since the Braves came here from Boston in 1953, treated the National League champions to a mighty sendoff.

Up on an outside balcony stood Ben Barkin, chairman of the civic celebration committee, presented Haney with a gold trophy almost as big as the 5 foot, 5 inch manager. It was inscribed "To Fred Haney, in appreciation for Milwaukee's first National League pennant."

This is one of the greatest things that ever happened to me," said Haney over a microphone. "A year ago we knew we owed you something. We've only paid half the debt. We've still got the other half to go."

SCHOOL BUS WRECK

KILLS TWO, HURTS 26

LOS ANGELES (AP)—At least two youngsters were killed and more than 20 injured when a school bus plunged into a 25-foot ravine late Monday and landed on its top.

The bus was taking the children home from the All Saints Catholic School on the city's East Side.

Coroner's deputies said two bodies had been taken from the wreckage and they were waiting to see if there were more.

CUBS SIGN SCHEFFING

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Scheffing Monday signed a one-year contract again to manage the Chicago Cubs, vice president John Holland announced Monday.

The salary was not disclosed. Scheffing, who replaced Stan Hack after the 1956 season, guided the Cubs to a seventh-place finish with 76 wins and 82 losses.

Shouts of "Go set 'em Braves" led the Cubs to a seventh-place finish with 76 wins and 82 losses.

"Don't give (Mickey) Mantle tie with Pittsburgh this season."
